PRICES:

AMUSEMENTS

ACH succeeding week seems to develop in the Columbia Players latent talent of a high order, and to the rule. Right here in his city, where Tim Murphy made Hoyt's play, "A Texas Steer," famous, where he always drew capacity audiences tives, the Supreme Court of the United States and from every walk of official and social life, the man who essayed to

How well George Barbier did the act thousands of theatergoers, who crowded the Columbia Theater last week, can best tell. Those whose duty it was to write an opinion had nothing but what was favorable to say. But the people who went to enjoy the play told their story in continuous laughter that did not die out even when the oft repeated applause seemed to move them to louder demonstrations of approval. It was a splendid the negro office seeker, and Col. K. N. Pepper is a big jump. But it has to be taken. Stanley James in the former role in their former engagement appeared as and Willard Robertson in the latter were simply immense. No one has surpassed i either in his part. Nina Melville, too, made a big stride forward as Bossy, Selfpossessed, natural and always pleasing full-nedged leading woman. The other artist's entire act, including a novel arplayers, all of them, fully measuerd up to the requirements, and made the production an enjoyable success. Opportunity alone seems to be wanting to show how very good all these players are.

The regular season is near at hand. Already the Academy and the Lyceum are making their opening announcements. The New York producers, too, are promising wonderful things with no mention whatever of the "lemons" they manage to squeeze in oftener than they should.

REALISM REBUKED .- Stanley James received a compliment Thursday which ing scenes from the life of John the nearly upset him. He had been told Mon- Baptist. John, preaching the advent of day in the local criticisms how well he the Messiah, denounces Herod's marhad played the part of Fishback, an office seeker, in "A Texas Steer," when he prison, he is sought by Salome, whom fairly divided the honors with George he repulses with scorn. Incited by Barbier and Nina Melville. But the latest compliment came in a form quite unex- the Baptist, and it is granted her. Mr. choice descriptive terms to those who pected and from an entirely different Vail accompanies the picture with the had gone to the playhouse to see "The

Mr. James is a quiet, dignified, polished gendeman off the stage. He seldom alows anything to disturb his equanimity. Lar y taught that " a soit answer turneth Thursday, Friday, Saturday and Sunawa, wrath," he has long practiced the virtue of acaling in whispered words of day. conclutation. His most intimate ir.ends fail to recall a time when he has ever permitted himself to be aroused, of tourse, in the morning, when Tue-day, arter rehearsal, conning the lines of Wolsey, Bishop of London, in him to be seated.

"No, sah," exclaimed the visitor, better keep on my feet, sah.'

the spoi.s, san, and I recently came here by the five small Alfrenos. with expectations. I thought yo' actin' even if you was dressed as a 'nigger.' It kinder wrenched me, sah, yes, wrenchany more than the author when he wrote the play, which has reference to conditions long since removed."

"Well, sah, that doesn't placate me, sah, half as much as yo' looks, sah. It's easy to reckon that you've been disappointed yo'self, sah. You look it, sah, in every line of yo' face, sah, an' fo' that reason alone, sah, I will withhold my wrath." are z close observer. The fact is I have today. been disappointed." Of co'se you have, sah, of co'se you have. No man goes to playactin' fer nothin', sah, no sah. Good day," and he flounced out as briskly as he flew in. "I must have done it right," murmured Stanley, "to hit him so hard.

Coming Attractions.

With Frances Neilson in the role of Mary Tudor, sister of King Henry VIII of England, and A. H. Van Buren as forms her of his wish that she marry frequently. King Louis of France. While she is talking dismayed to her lover, Brandon, Wolsey interrupts her with the demand for her answer, whereupon she flies into a violent temper, denounces France and honor and flounces out of sight, leaving King Henry and his court amazed. In the second act, which is laid in Mary's apartments in Bridewell House,

STANLEY JAMES, Columbia Players.

ment to New Spain with Brandon. She has written to him a number of times, but receives no answer, because the let- run with Henry E. Dixey in the role of ters have been intercepted. Brandon, on the principal fun maker. It was then the other hand, who has killed Sir Adam taken on the road and in every city its "What is it?"

Johnson, is evading the king's wrath and success was confirmed. "I'm going to Johnson, is evading the king's wrath and success was confirmed.

Cannot communicate with her. At this Managers Metzerott and Berger, who the king at ain goes to the princess aim to keep the'r fing as close y upon the me a month ago if I'd be her brides- "Yes," replied to bree the suit of the French king and subhe galse, believe that just such a maid."

she prepares to flee from London. The third act discloses Mary and her lover, the former disguised as a cavalier, last week was not an exception at the Bow and String Inn, at Bristol, where they are overtaken by Wolsey and the king's guards. They are forced to part, vowing eternal fidelity.

The fourth act finds Mary in an apartment in the Palace des Tournelles, from the Senate, House of Representa- whither she and her maid have been taken by Sir Edward Caskaden. It there appears that Mary has already married ing the progress of a ball. She is in 22 to 29, making views of each step in step into his shoes in the role of Maverick | danger at the hands of his successor, the celebration, from the pageant to Brander had a large proposition on his Francis, but is rescued by Brandon and

The last act is laid in Greenwich Palace, England, where Mary is forgiven for having married Brandon, who is made happily.

includes many new faces in addition to the well known members of the Colum-

Cosmos.

A return engagement of the Metropolitan Minstrels is announced as the feature ed by little Ray Dooley, the company the "Buster Brownies." This time they promise an entirely new act, entitled "The Dutch Kiddies." for which special cieties. scenery and appropriate costumes have been provided Fritz Houston, comedy cartoonist, and pupil of Bert Levey, promises that rangement for showing pictures in course of construction. Sasha Gordien, the Russian violinist, will also appear, with a program of popular classics and quaint olk melodies of her native land. Bartino and his aerial dogs in novel gymnastic feats, and "Ned Dandy, "teller of good stories," complete the vaudeville. A program of the newest photo plays, selected from the best of the releases, is Virginia.

"Herodias," the picture that has attracted much attention at the Virginia. It riage to his brother's wife. Thrown into pearing at the Airdome, informed the Herodias, she wins favor by dancing be fore Herod, demands the head of John skulls, ignoramuses." and applied other appropriate music, including the "Dance Next week the much heralded film depicting the love of Napoleon and Josephine will be shown Wednesday,

Luna Park. don't perpose to be seated. My business at the park, such as the coaster ride trip through the "Fanama canal," the stage here, and when the other playly, but suavely, but the reply made h.m of the winds, caroussel, Egyptian paimist, they received the attention that had Young gentleman," proceeded the will be in full swing. There will also be Tomorrow night the sensational cycling last night, sah, was a drive at me, sah, act known as the 'cage of death' will open an engagement at Luna Park. The sides of the cage are almost perpendicular, and the riders wheel around it at "Why, my dear sir," came back the reckless speed, at times passing each astute Mr. James, "I merely played a other so closely that a collision seems part that was written more than twenty inevitable. The big dancing pavilion, with I certainly didn't know you, excellent music, continues one of the many popular features of Luna Park. Glen Echo.

Official announcement is made by Gen- of a species bearing that name. As a cause of the determination to enforce the "Oh, thank you," gasped Stanley. You Echo Park will not be open to the public its humps illustrating the vicissitudes at china blue.

> Meanwhile, it is declared, the management will give the various attractions a fifty-seven different contrivances, and public support is amply attested by For the origin of one part of its name black giant, looking like a locomotive the constantly increasing patronage since it is in color orange tinted and brown with legs for wheels, came rushing at her the date of its opening in May. of the season, moving pictures and the from its head a long file-shaped spine, other free features will continue to be which it can raise or fold down along on prominent phases of the park's offerings. its body at will.

Chevy Chase Lake.

romantic play in four acts, dramatized transferred to the pavilion. The proby Paul Kester from the novel of gram is usually completed about 9

Windsor Park, overlooking the Thames, sides, including swings for the juvenile It is May day, 1513, and the court at- element, shooting galleries, bowling altendants are seen gossiping when King leys and a motion picture theater. Cars Henry enters with the princess and in- to and from the lake run regularly and today has been engaged especially for the concert and the program will differ musical program includes "If I Were this filefish the appearance of having two King," overture (Adam); humoresque on humps. "La Sorelia" (Bellstedt), "Peer Gynt" suite (Grieg), comedy waltz, "Tobasco" (Johnson): "Serenata" (Moszkowski), and "Song of the Evening Star," from Tannhauser" (trombone solo). The pictures include "The Doomed Ship," "The Fickle Fiance," "A Trip to the Island of Markin" and several other subjects.

Cosmos Concert Today.

Howe Travel Festival. ter this evening, as has been previously World. announced. Some difficulty was found in | And it may, and doubtless will, be ture, and Mr. Howe felt that it would be stored to their supremacy" in Amherst better to postpone the opening until next | College, and perhaps to the profit of the Sunday rather than repeat the pictures college and of the country, without creathe has already shown here.

"A Fugitive From Justice."

"Facing the Music." Another farce, "Facing the Music," is scheduled for production by the Colum-London, Mary is contemplating an elope- bia Players next week. It attained wide

TATE OF THE REAL PROPERTY.

she seeks refuge in bed. When he leaves piece as this is due and are preparing to give it a fine production. Like all farces it is in three acts, and original not only in theme but in treatment as well.

Howe's Full Coronation Views. A complete reproduction of the coronation of King George and Queen Mary in moving pictures will be presented at the Columbia Theater Sunday evening, August 6. Lyman H. Howe kept his camera men in the French king, who dies suddenly dur- London during the entire festivities, June tofore exhibited in Washington, it is said, were those photographed the first day of and made a record of incidents more interesting for picture-taking. The "royal presentation of the "pearl sword" at the western boundary of Lonan open carriage en route to St. Paul's, ship in the naval review, and the great crowds that thronged the streets at night are revealed in the Howe films. These will be a part of the official record of the events to be kept for posterity in Lyceum to Open.

the archives of English historical so-

Before leaving for New York, where coming season, Manager Mayer of the Lyceum announced the opening of that house would take place about the middle of August, with "The Tiger Lilies" as States Kipling ought to come along the attraction.

WHY LEADING LADY FUMED.

She Spoke the Wrong Word and the Audience Laughed.

From the Excelsior Springs Call. Probably the most sensational and the most uncalled for incident in the theatrical history of Excelsior Springs occurred last night when Mrs. W. E. of temper is at any time unpleasant, scene in the second act that Mrs. Culhane tensely ejaculated. "I am still your husband" (it should have been would go on without further interruption. But it was then the tirade started, and the great wonder was that the entire audience did not leave in the face of such insulting remarks. It was previously been given, even greeting Mrs. Culhane's final return to the stage walked along in front of the tanks at the aquarium, and surely it seemed as fish was not camel fish, though it had hoppers, and bobbing around irresponsibly makes about eight miles an hour.

NOT REALLY A CAMEL FISH.

Justification for a Young Aquarium Visitor's Surprise.

Shadow dancing," a popular innovation comes from the fact that it has rising its body at will.

From the top of its high back in front the head of the filefish slopes down sharply to its snout; from the top of its snout; from the top slope down to its tail. This gives the fish a high, thin ridge along the midlength of its back, and how this particular filefish came to be cama backed ength of its back and simply bit a piece out of it there, as a human being might came from. And that was all there was by Commodore Ingling and Secretary to do that, but just watch the boats that bite a piece out of a slice of bread, leavof about the same sweep and dimensions. Such a wound would have killed most fish of ordinary build, but it did not prove mortal to this deep bodied filefish. The marks of the teeth that bit that piece out of it are still visible on the filefish's in the middle of the length of the back. naterially from the weekly show. The which slopes down sharply at either end, Latin and Greek.

From Harper's Weekly. "The action of Amhers: College in seeking to restore Latin and Greek to their supremacy in the scheme of higher education may be the beginning of a great reaction. Or it may be another case of Mrs. Lyman H. Howe will not open his Partington, with her broom trying to "travel festival" at the Columbia Thea- sweep back the rising tide," says the completing the program for the first lec- neither. Latin and Greek may be "reing an educational reaction. It is not at His new program is said to be beautiful in all and wonderful in some of its features and by far the best he has yet reserved in Washington Everything is presented in Washington. Everything is be said that she proposes to specialize promised to be in readiness for the first in a general education which shall ecture next Sunday evening at the Co- aim to train sound thinkers. Latin is still extensively taught in this country, but Greek gets a less and less extended attention. It does not seem likely that it will again be urged upon the general "A Fugitive From Justice" will be the run of college students. Nevertheless, opening attraction at the Academy the week of August 14. nor give all his strength to material development or economics or scientific re-

All Fixed.

From the Catholic Standard and Times. "I've got great news for you," cried "What is it?" asked his cousin Jennie.

Around the City

had once been a young soldier, and the chair signified that, for him, the war should never be over until the day of eternal peace. The woman was his guardian angel in the earthly disguise of a wife. And the two were happy because they had love, and love is all that counts.

With gentle slowness she had wheeled her invalid on his bit of outing and brought him back to the steps of their home. A man's strength was needed to engineer the chair into the house, so the guardian angel, who seemed to ordinary eyes to be only a loving and faithful woman, looked anxiously up and down the street and finally across to where a colored youngster was draped against the orated canoes were out. gray slats of a tree box. In answer to her ward her, eved the proposition with infingering in her bag when the two were joined by a young Italian from a nearby shop. He was so different in shape, color the festivities. Mr. Howe waited for the and pose from everyday humanity that a four-oared crew from the Analostan probably more will go. ceremonies in the streets that followed one could only suppose nature, in sudden weariness of job-lot creations, had passed his commission over to Michelangelo, who had done his best. And, furthermore he was so strong, so smiling and so ready I to offer service that the woman gave way and after the chair was in the house lasked how much she owed him. If the answer had come from the sort Every canoeist on the river is invited of person who wears a red ribbon across enter, and all those on the upper part a fine starched shirt, instead of from could not have been more gracious: The allowed to serve a soldier who had fought "And you," he went on, turning to the good-natured youngster who was loung-

ng back to his tree box; "how can you studied melody of the black man's race. for me. I c'n do my own fight'n-Which suggests that some United pretty soon and write a bang-up poem for the new generation. Lest it forget.

When a baby's toe wiggles out of its on the face of the earth. This is official. It came from a woman whose baby wiggles its toes outside of its lawful environment. This way: She was car riding with a blue lawn girl, and while they confabbed aboutwho can keep tab on what two young women talk about from Takoma Park to Center market?-the baby, on its mother's right, was having a gorgeous time tearing up a transfer slip into And one pink speck of toe was bob bing out of its shoe. Likewise, out of its stocking. The blue lawn girl called con-

It was in the midst of an exciting a baby so young that its only language was a flannelly gurgle, when entertainless yell when interrupted with spanking!-Never mind, if the day ever comes when suffragette spinsters get to running have had under his blue cloth a tender heart for kiddles, stopped the one-sided war with another transfer. The mamma paper bag and choked a yell midway. Finy hands, pimpled with heat, clutched at the greasy pacifier, two legs kicked with were over. The blue lawn girl considered on her lap, and while caging the esher prophecy about the tiny gling out to save its pity itty life-does Club in a body to be their guests for A spinstery Miss Pris can't be expected of course, to cope successfully with such | Willard's lock and the housing of meman abstruse problem, but, say, just for bers over Saturday night. Quite an unthe sake of argument:

and crawled and flew around her, and to make better than eight miles an hour. she was having a perfectly lovely time The boat has not yet been named. making believe she was down the Poto-was dreadful What saved the poor woman was anin his pockets, and spitt ng tobacco juice something awful. The green giant came cruise on his boat Doris. He is accom- on some waters, or, to be more accurate, July with long leaps that would have made pan'ed by Mrs. Pulliam and a few friends, on most waters, fuel stations are gena record for marathon jumps look fool- and expects to make most of the lower erally few and far between. Do not think August 1...... ish, and the locomotive fellow was so river landings. scared at sight of him that he turned on his tracks and rushed off to where he The record run of the season was made that any fool would know better than

Instead of a head light he had pop

The poor woman, who wouldn't harm a fly, stopped long enough in the field to than necessary would object to her comcolor that could possibly be mistaken for A red, and she was considering this important matter, when along came a glantess, a scarlet one, tearing toward her at full tilt. But the poor woman wasn't afraid, for anybody could see the glantess was a lady. Her red satin princess had black spots all over it and her petticoats were the loveliest black

None of the giants harmed the poor woman, of course, or the poor woman wouldn't be al've to tell the tale. Besides. they were nothing in the world but-A hustling black ant, a grasshopper and a lady bird fly. And a woman.

And a magnifying glass.

Two young people-a John and Mary edition of Romeo and Juliet-were sitting other night. The moon was doing wonderful things to the water, and Romeo and Juliet had a corner of silvery silence all to themselves—except for a comfortable old married couple, who had eaten a bag of bananas between them and most a bag of bananas between them and most accommodatingly dropped off to sleep. A spinstery woman, in passing them, to the water cooler, tipped softly so as not to seem intrusive. It was her tribute of the number, saying that the particular | with profound delight now; about the to love's young dream. But she couldn't help seeing the giri's rapt young face,

Service of the servic

BOAT CLUB GOSSIP OTHER AQUATIC

WM. B. LAUB, JR.

the Washington Canoe Club will hold a two years ago, when over a mile of dec- The distance is 190 miles.

The Analostan club will try to assist of pleasure for members and friends of at 8 p.m. below the Analostan clubhouse, towed by two launches, which will per- around about Wilkerson's. form various evolutions all the way up point if they will appear off the Washington Canoe Club at 7:30 o'clock. The Potomac club will also give another regatta on the evening of August 5, when | ner, Assistant Secretary Bartlett, is pinthere will be races for four-oared shells, single sculls, outriggers, canoes, war canoes and other canoe events. Owing to the rain which unfortunately the proceeds will be devoted toward cost cent of repairs on the front.

some of the enthusiasm of the veterans. arms. A short history of the club, its ambitions and plans for the future, was given, and

YAWL DORRETTE"

Nearly 100 were present, an ex-talk was had from the different offi-cellent showing, in view of the fact that attendance was limited to members only and the fact that so many are out of date the peculiar needs of the launch owners. They require more locker space general room where the emergency material can be obtained. It would not be surprising if before winter a second wing was added, to this end. There has never been the slightest friction between ca-noeists and launch owners; in fact, such enthusiastic canoeists as Commodore

Rogers, Corresponding Secretary Yeager,

dertaking for the hosts, but it is bound

Trezevant Williams' new thirty-footer, flush deck forward and open cockpit aft.

She is a mighty neat looking craft and

Dr. W. O. Owen put his new thirty-

Ex-Commodore G. N. Waterbury was family. Commodore Waterbury had s'artcity in order to make railway connec-

B. R. Pulliam is away on a month's

TRIALS BY WATER.

Proving One's Innocence.

A traveler has described a modern sur-

suspected persons.
A sorceress then addressed each one eighteenth centuries. A synod of West reading the booklets.

balls of bread were made as there were me like one of those summers.

to see whether they would sink or I'd like best.

it was still customary to throw all the all of them and enjoy every one of them

From the Dietetic and Hygienic Gazette.

whole of the nineteenth century.

being stoned.

footer into the water Wednesday.

to be a delightful affair.

the fortunate possessors of power boats. nose on the beach where she will probably

Dr. Allen Wolfe, C. M. Davidson, D. M.

There is a plan under way to build an

the city at this time.

Adams in the Vika. They left the Corinthian clubhouse at 6:30 o'clock Saturday The Analostan Boat Club will give an- evening last and ran to St. Georges Isother regatta August 5, followed by the land, reaching there twelve hours later, usual dance, and on the same evening having encountered heavy head winds all in the channel, where the drift is strong-somewhat in this, and the plan is to club cruise of the Corinthian Yacht Club, August. The boys expect to leave Washboth clubs. The Old Dominion Boat Club No list of boats going has yet been made. of Alexandria is contemplating inviting but it is expected that at least eight and

A. Marconnier, with a small party, left the city yesterday on his boat Atler for a ten-day cruise down the river and there will be two lines of canoes. He expects to make his headquarters

Vice Commodore Harrington Barker is still up in New England. He is understood to be looking up lumber for his of the river will be towed to the starting new boat, which is under construction here. Being a New Englander himself. southern timber isn't salty enough for him. In the meantime his old side parting away, and, incidentally, laboring on the new boat.

dampened the recent excursion, another rinthian Yacht Club are working hard will be given Wednesday, August 9, and trying to remove the marks of the re- ter time will be made to windward. fire when the steamer River Queen Saturday, July 15, to introduce the thirty a number of them. John D. Hill only are almost always preceded by a wind new members to the older ones. It was succeeded in saving his boat after a hard of hurricane force, and then, besides, a a most successful affair and gave the fight. The boat was badly scorched, and late comers a splendid chance to catch Mr. Hill was severely burned about the

If there is no wharf near the camp to

VINCT TROIS "

the shore line sends the anchor overthe most careful sailor would demand, in order to get aboard is to haul in on the trip rope, which, of course, was made feet of half-inch manila for boats eight-eeen feet long and under. Longer line your boat is, in my opinion, too full of exception. Take, for example, a thirty-

For a sixteen, eighteen or twenty foot boat the anchor should be a galvanized for, after all, they are the things that other small boat, carry securely lashed in its stern sheets a ten-gallon can of gasoline and a five-gallon can of coal oil.

Take It in the Booklets.

sometimes another-when I go.

was de la time en a pla il broade fine a feet

inboard end securely tied. Fasten a the bay.

and in the morning all that is necessary August.

cause of a capsize and an obituary notice. rig up cushioned extensions on the side

When cruising on the Potomac, where the tide is such an important factor, always remember that when sailing with the way. The island was left at 2:30 est; but when "bucking" the tide keep o'clock that afternoon and they tied up at on the flats, where the drift will be inlantern parade similar to the one given the clubhouse at 12:50 o'clock that night. significant. The drift is the speed of the current and the set is its direction. You will find that the change of set oc-Plans are being made for the annual curs an hour sooner on the flats than in the channel.

ing directions which every power boat owner is required to know. I am going to enumerate a few more hints which you might find helpful, meaning, of course, as the trouble to do so.

up, never get the idea into your helmet that you can "make it" across their bows. unless they are anchored, and then be careful that the drift of the tide doesn't set you down on them. Sailboats have the right of way at all times, and their speed can be judged only by an expert. Don't race at full speed into a steamboat swell. Slow your engine down, take it a least bit off the bow and you will find that not a drop of water comes aboard. If running head-on to the seas on a windy day, when the forward deck will bury and the propeller leave the water, slow A number of the members of the Co- your engine and you will find that instead of jumping up and down in one place, bet-Il you see a thudersquall coming, get was destroyed. None of the club boats shelter, and get it in a hurry. These sumwas seriously injured, although the paint mer storms that usually appear on the was scorched and varnish blistered upon horizon about 3 o'clock in the afternoon lone boat on a broad expanse of water, lightning.

Crossing Line At Drum Point

elves from the deck.

taken more readily.

which struck a brass whistle directly in

Don't ever permit these fool cleats

that adorn so many boats and which only await the first real pull to spearate them-

Have good strong samson posts put in fore and aft and you will never regret it.

For a parting shot it is recommended that the embryonic cruiser read all the accounts of open boat cruising he can make fast to, and then some of the hints

in this "ounce of prevention" will be

Next week Vice Commodore Horace C.

Chandlee of the Capital Yacht Club will

The commodore plans to visit Colonial pate in the yacht club cruise, but, being postpone his trip until the month of Why and Because.

the slight rocking of the boat would

There is no reason why the generator neatly on the forward deck (amount of trip, as uncertain weather is apt to be line regulated by depth of water) with the encountered at this time of the year near chor, and give the craft a healthy shove Beach, Piney Point, Lewisetta and probaoff shore until a distance of about twenty bly several places on the eastern shore of yards is reached. Then a sharp pull on the bay. It was his intention to partici-

ELINOR

board and moors the boat as securely as unable to leave town at that time, had to old moss-grown axiom that the anchor the boat, however, there is little vibra-turn out Sunday afternoons and there'll be three out of every ten with topheavy awnings that sooner or later will be the If your boat's stability permits either an awning or a stationary top the tent is an unnecessary item, but you must seats or on the thwarts to allow a cat nap once in a while. Carry a leg-o'-mutton sail if going on a long trip. It can be made of unbleached cotton and should have a bolt rope sewed around the edges for the sake of strength. The outfit should not cost more than a dollar, and when lashed to a boat hook, and stepped through a seat a little forward of amidships you have some means of reaching harbor if the power plant gets con-

Last of all, aside from the usual sail-

A local motor boat owner was instantly killed about two summers ago by a bolt with its brass and iron, does attract

MATS. and SAT

"THE DUTCH KIDDIES" FRITZ HOUSTON A Distinct Novelty in Cartooning Character Change Comedians and Dance

BARTINO'S AERIAL DOGS

A Novel Exhibition of Animal Intelligen

SASMA GORDIEN The Distinguished Russian Violiniste

Special Sunday Concerts Today At 3, 5, 7, and 9 P. M. Prices . . 10c and 20c

CLEN ECHO PARK ADMISSION FREE

SPECIAL!

TODAY WILL BE A "BLUE CLASS ATTRACTIONS, WILL

CLOSED TODAY ONLY

P. M. TOMORRÓW, JULY 31.

Carroll Manor Woods, Buckeystown, WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 2, 1911. Professional and Amateur Knights.

Cleveland BLEACHER ENTRANCE ON 5TH ST. hevy Chase Lake.

LUNA PARK

six-pound kedge, having flukes three and time that a searchlight would be in use one-half inches wide, on a twenty-six-foot with the boat at anchor it should give

The time of high water at Washington

You are probably aware of the fact that of building a stationary top on a nar-

From the Columbian Magazine, Throwing people into the water to let it "Where am I going this summer? Well, It may surprise many Americans who determine their innocence or guilt was h'm. I haven't quite made up my mind as late as ten years ago looked upon widely in use in the seventeenth and yet," said Mr. Gwillkinton. "I'm still Manitoba as on the edge of the world to know that Manitoba probably is the old- katchewan, is following right along. It Prussia forbade its use in 1745. Sporadic Every year I get the booklets, a lot est settled section of the North American is in the northern part of Alberta, near cases, however, occurred during the of 'em, and, say, they're wonderful. continent west of the Mississippi river and the largest single irrigation project in the Beautifully printed and delightfully il- north of New Mexico. It was near the world outside of Egypt has been under-

Away up in the Peace river country, 200 million acres are now under the ditch. women into the water on a specified day and try to make up my mind which place miles north of Edmonton, the Hudson's Bay Company has a wheat mill that has

"But, whether I go or not, I always towns, in the cities, in the irrigated districts, working hard and setting the pace been suggested. He showed by fairly read the booklets, always, as I am doing ball of bread which she held in her hand would sink or swim as the party address- ed was guilty or innocent. She then flung by to me, even when, as this year, it boom spirit from him, and some of them, neither brain pallor, nor intoxication by the party address the grand old ocean, and they are all a for his neighbors. They have caught the conclusive arguments that this could be conclusive arguments that this could be conclusive arguments that this could be conclusive arguments that the party address the grand old ocean, and they are all a for his neighbors. They have caught the party address the grand old ocean, and they are all a for his neighbors. They have caught the party address the grand old ocean, and they are all a for his neighbors. They have caught the party address the grand old ocean, and they are all a for his neighbors. They have caught the party address the grand old ocean, and they are all a for his neighbors. They have caught the party address the grand old ocean, and they are all a for his neighbors. They have caught the party address the grand old ocean, and they are all a for his neighbors. They have caught the party address the grand old ocean, and they are all a for his neighbors. They have caught the party address the grand old ocean, and they are all a for his neighbors. They have caught the party address the grand old ocean and they are all a for his neighbors.

MR. GWILLKINTON'S VACATION. MANITOBA SURPRISINGLY OLD. Distinctly Unpleasant Way of This One of the Years When He Will Fur Traders Kept Most Settlers Out of Western Canada.

Prof. E. P. Evans wrote in 1895 of its lustrated. Why, it's as good as a vaca- present side of Winnipeg that Lord Sel- taken by the Canadian Pacific railroad. use in Dalmatia, where in some districts tion to read some of them, and I go over kirk settled his Red river colonists in Three million acres are to be irrigated

"Of course, in a general way one knows been in operation for mity years."

Edmonton is 1,000 miles west of Winnipeg A rope was attached to each in order to what sort of place one likes. Some like and about 300 miles north of the United save from drowning those who proved the seashore, some the mountains. For States line. The mill grinds wheat that is as close to each other as two campstools would allow, on the deck of a steamer that was excursioning down the river the other night. The moon was doing won-Missouri river and the Pacific coast in the which summarizes the latest researches "I don't always go. There are certain United States. But for 200 years it was on the subject. He admitted at the out-

The American is ubiquitous in western chiefly to investigating the cause of canada now. He is on the farm, in the

WEALTH OF BEAUTY AT 1

BASEBALL

Washington 3:30

Concert by section U. S. Marine Band every evening, Sundays included. Daning weekday evenings. Admission free

ALL THE AMUSEMENTS FREE GATE DANCING BAND CONCERT

EXCURSIONS. YACHT IDLER

Leaves River Queen wharf for Colonial Beach every Saturday at 6 o'clock, returning Sunday at 5 p.m. Round trip, $1.00. NEWRIVERVIEW OPEN EVERY DAY

Steamer St. Johns leaves 7th st. wharf today 40-Mile Moonlight Trip Steamer St. Johns leaves 7th st. wharf today, 7 p.m. Adults, 25c; children, 15c. COLONIAL BEACH

Steamer leaves 7th st. wharf every day except Monday at 9 a.m.; Saturdays at 2:30 p.m. COLONIAL BEACH HOTEL Special rates. Fare, season trip, good unti-Sentember 4, $1.00; one-day trip, 50c.

DANCING. THE DAVISONS. PROF. AND MRS. Asdemy, 719 6th n.w. Lessors any hour, Class and social tance, Tuesday, Friday eves, Couled by electric fans. Phone M. 4684.

Physiology of Sleep.

At the National Museum for Na ural

History in Paris M. R. Legendre Etely tism and lethargy, and devoted himself and hearing the youngster declare to her in a suppressed fervor of passion:

"Yes. sir-ree! You keep your eye on water Johnson-the Nationals are going to not the pennon yet-yes, sir-ree—" What do you suppose that moon the heart of the delign that design the delign that design the delign that design the delign that design the delign that this poor little lamb should be destroyed in its youth just to cater to our appose the struggling with his portion, "it is tough."

and hearing the youngster declare to her in a suppressed fervor of passion:

"Yes." replied the smart boarder, struggling with his portion, "it is tough."

and hearing the youngster declare to her in a suppressed fervor of passion:

"Yes." replied the smart boarder, struggling with his portion, "it is tough."

and hearing the youngster declare to her in a suppressed fervor of passion:

"Yes." replied the smart boarder, struggling with his portion, "it is tough."

and hearing the youngster declare to her in a suppressed fervor of passion:

"Yes." replied the smart boarder, struggling with his portion, "it is tough."

and hearing the youngster declare to her in a suppressed fervor of passion:

"Yes." replied the smart boarder, struggling with his portion, "it is tough."

and hearing the youngster declare to her in the suppressed fervor of passion:

"Yes." replied the smart boarder, struggling with his portion, "it is tough."

and hearing the youngster declare to her in the suppressed fervor of passion:

"Yes." replied the smart boarder, struggling with his portion, "it is tough."

and hearing the youngster declare to her in the subject of the book as if I'd have to take it out the book eats of the book test book as if I'd have to take it out the book et as of I have to a solid the policy when the booklets.

Still, I am not disturbed by that How booklets as I'd have to take it out the booklets.

The Boiling water was used in ordeals by the booklets as I'd have to take it out the booklets.

The struggling the youngster seed in ordeals by the book et win

I said before, you, the beginner, and not the old shellback, who can give you better advice than I, but who will never take When cru'sing on navigable waters where sailing craft are always looming Next ILYMAN H. HOWE'S Sunday Travel Festival. Seats Now.